ABOUT US

Our History

Purchased from a Vietnam veteran in 2018, the café became the third restaurant at this location in 40 years. Steve moved here immediately after the purchase, while Michelle stayed in Cincinnati for several months to complete the sale of their house, leading some to wonder if she was real. Once established, we faced challenges due to COVID-19, but we persevered and are still here. If you enjoy your visit, please support us by sharing with your friends and online — THANK YOU!!

What happened to the challenge?
The King Kong challenge, and later, the Bride of Kong, were developed to test our guests. Over the years approximately 250 people have tried them, with most failing. The challenge has been removed from the menu, but in it's honor you can still order the King Kong for $60.

What's with the name?

Steve once met a girl named Michelle, and there was an instant attraction. However, like many new relationships, they had their quirks. Steve needed to give Michelle a nickname, and after much thought, "Monkey" was chosen. When it was time to name the new café, Steve, being the smart man we know he is, named it after Michelle, aka Monkey, who was now his wife. Thus, the café became Monkey Morning Café on July 4, 2018.

Are you veteran owned?

We are strong supporters of our nation's military and proudly offer a discount to all active and former members. While the owners did not serve in the military, we deeply appreciate and honor the service of all veterans. Thank you!
